

Garage Sale Cum Mela Shanthi Mandir

8:00 am - 1:00 pm
Saturday, September 8, 2007
2006 Holly Avenue

Tired of your overflowing closets and packed basement?
Want to eat Indian snacks while enjoying a fun community activity?
Feel like donating your unused "stuff" to raise money for Shanthi Mandir?

Help us with our garage sale!

What items can you donate?

- Clothes – Indian or American, baby to adult sizes. Lightly used, no tears or stains. Cleaned / washed, preferably on hangers (non-returnable).
- Salwar kameez outfits in good condition sold rapidly last year, and people asked for saris – so send them along.
- Small appliances – in working condition.
- Toys, books, CDs, baby items – in good condition
- Other "standard" electronic / household / garage sale items
- NO men's clothes or shoes, please.

How can you donate items?

Pick up – if you need help transporting items from your home call Meera at 446-6143 or Anantha at 446-0663 before Aug 28 to make arrangements
OR

Drop off - You may drop off small and medium sized items at the Educational Center behind the Mandir: Sat Aug 25 and Sat Sep 1, 10 am–1 pm
Large items only (e.g., furniture) – please drop off on Friday evening Sep 7 from 7-8 pm

Would you like to help organize the garage sale?

We need volunteers to:

- Cook snacks for sale: week prior to Sep 8 (2-4 volunteers)
- Sort and price items: Sep 1, 2, and 3 mornings. (6-8 people each day) Teenagers welcome!
- Receive items: Aug 25: 2 people
- Sell snacks, apply Mehendi, manage the sale and "man" the cash register on Sep 8: (8 volunteers needed)

Contact us, preferably by Aug 25:

Meera Chandrasekhar (446-6143, meerac@missouri.edu)

Visala Palaniappan (446-1962, visalap@hotmail.com)

Chandra Rawlani (446-5960, rawlanic@yahoo.com)

Kusum Malhotra (445-1867, kusum65203@yahoo.com)